Everyone deserves to have one less stress in their life when caring for a sick child, so it was an easy decision to support Ronald McDonald House Manitoba. “The House became our refuge — a warm, safe place during the coldest, darkest days of winter. Whether it was caring check-ins from staff or cheerful greetings in the hallway, we always felt supported and never alone. When Evie was too sick to do much, we spent quiet days together at the House, finding comfort in small routines and gentle activities. Meanwhile, our son, Mack, showed incredible strength, staying with family in Brandon and visiting when he could. It wasn’t easy being apart, but Ronald McDonald House helped make those separations more bearable by giving us a sense of home in Winnipeg.

Without your support, families like ours would face this journey alone. Because of you, we had a place to stay, a community to lean on, and the strength to keep going.”
